

Features & Applications

Dimtroller™ RGB is a simple yet effective wall mount controller for controlling Prime Light's High Power RGB Lamps. With a Push-Dial Knob, users can easily select different modes and control the settings. This single device can easily control more than a hundred lamps and they are very suitable for boutiques, restaurant, entertainment outlets and other commercial applications.

Dimensions

All dimensions in mm.

Product Specifications

Input Voltage	24 VDC (through RG45 connector)
Output Capacity	Capable of providing Data signal to 100 Prime Light's High Power RGB Lamps
Connector	RJ45

Modes

User can easily change to the next mode by pressing the dial knob.

1. Static Colour – the controller display the different spectrum of static colours.
2. Intensity setting for Static Colour
3. Colour Changing – the colour changing speed is controllable

Connection

